

Project Rubric

Completeness All components of the project are completely done.	4 Entirely complete	3 Mostly complete	2 Somewhat complete	1 Incomplete
Neatness The written components are in your neatest writing. The project looks professional.	4 Neat throughout the entire thing	3 Mostly neat	2 Somewhat neat	1 Needs improvement
Self-Reflection Your self reflection is filled out thoughtfully and meaningfully.	4 Entirely relevant	3 Mostly relevant	2 Somewhat relevant	1 Irrelevant
Presentation This reflects your best work. You can articulate your ideas and concepts. You are proud to present it and have it displayed in the classroom.	4 Well articulated. Content is well known and delivered with proficiency.	3 Articulation is lacking. Content is somewhat known but still grasps the audience's attention.	2 Lack of proper articulation. Content is not well known. Many details are lacking.	1 Student does not know the content. Delivery is lacking.