

Name: _____

Block: _____

Research Question:

	1	3	5	S	T
Topic	Majority of data does not support research question.	Parts of data are on topic but there are other parts of the research are not of the topic. Not important information is given.	Data is on spot and supports the research questions. Important information is given and is relevant to the topic.
Organization	The research data is not organized and does not go with the topic.	The research data is a little organized. The data kind of goes with the research topic.	The data is spot on. Data is organized is such a matter any would be able to read it.
Research (Sources)	Research is not related to question. There are no sources listed. Made up own information without actual source of evidence.	1 or 2 pieces of research given or more but they are not cited. Some research given is not from a credible resource.	3-5 pieces of research provided from reliable sources and were cited. All facts given were accurate.
Capitalization, Spelling and Punctuation	Multiple errors in spelling or punctuation. Lack of capitalization proper nouns.	Most of paper is correctly capitalized. A few spelling errors. Punctuation is lacking in some sentences.	Capitalization and punctuation throughout the paper is correct. Little or no spelling errors are present.
Creativity	The data and the model do not match each other.	The data and the model do match so what. The model is nice but is missing 1 or 2 piece of data.	The entire model and data are matching. The model represents all the data that was collected.		