

Humans In Space Content Option 2: Mission Paper Rubric

Score/Criterion	1	3	5
Name of Mission and Mission Goals	Inadequately describes the missions and mission goals for each.	Describes the missions and mission goals for each.	Provides a complete description of the missions and mission goals for each.
Destination	Inadequately addresses the mission destination.	Describes the mission destination.	Clearly and completely articulates the mission destination.
Major Science/Engineering Research Activities	Inadequately addresses science and research activities for the mission.	Provides details about the science and research activities for the mission.	Thoroughly describes specific mission activities in science and research.
Instrumentation	Inadequately addresses mission instrumentation.	Provides details about the instruments used on the mission.	Provides a details description of the instruments and their purpose on the mission.
Relevance to NASA's current goals	Does not adequately address the relevance to NASA's Vision for Exploration and/ or current goals.	Discusses the mission in terms of NASA's Vision for Exploration and/ or current goals.	Engages in a detailed discussion of how the mission meets NASA's current goals, which may include NASA's Vision for Exploration .
Written Convention	Poorly written paper includes numerous spelling or grammatical errors.	Some grammar or spelling errors distract the reader. Organization and flow are lacking.	Paper is well written with few grammar, spelling, or citation errors. Paper demonstrates good organization and flow.

Total points ____/30 divided by 2 = ____/15