

I HAVE A DREAM BY MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS:

1. Martin Luther King, Jr., a visionary leader and advocate for equality, spearheaded the civil rights movement in America through nonviolent protests.
2. I Have a Dream, speech by Martin Luther King, Jr., that was delivered on August 28, 1963, during the March on Washington.
Location: Washington, D.C.
3. A march for equality and freedom of speech. The march also was for Civil rights for black people and inmigrant.
4. One hundred years. Its about one hundred from that date he did the speech.
5. That even the negros was free with that act of freedom of Abraham Lincoln, the negros still have no right at that time of the speech.
6. Means that the government did deliver those right was sign one hundred years before the speech.
7. He said: "He refuse to believe that the bank of justice is bankrupt.
8. To the government and white people who hated black people.
9. The main idea is the hope that day come to everybody united as a country with no divisions.

