¿Qué aprendí del curso?

First of all, thank you for the opportunity and for your instructions during the class that makes an immense difference compared to the opposite. During this English course I have review to revalue the importance of the grammar and the correct writing as an academic tool, also as a personal one to organize ideas, express opinions and analyze topics of interest.

I have written documents and sermons for many years but like the driver of a car, the experience is not always favorable, it intoxicates us and relaxes us at the wheel to the point of forgetting the due qualities and important differences when writing and we are guilty of unintentionally crash the language with the excuse of a lack of prudence or the product of our distraction and/or disinterest.

Each type of expository, argumentative or literary piece of homework has allowed me to practice different ways of communicating, from the objective explanation to the defense of a position. It should not be forgotten that writing in any forms requires discipline, reflection and connection with reality. In each work, from forums to literary readings, I have been able to exercise how to use language with precision and creativity. I appreciate the opportunity to strengthen my academic skills, which help me to be more critical, to dialogue with respect and to apply the analysis to everyday life situations. In conclusion, your course is valuable Mrs Arroyo, since any language including English, is not only a means of communication, but rich and abundant in adjectives, synonyms, homonyms and it is also a bridge to think, question and grow as a person. I congratulate you on your work and for staying immersed in the process until you see the final result. Blessings!
